THE BRIDGE DIGEST

July 2020, Vol. 03

Mr. Anthony Mkpe Ayine
Auditor-General for the Federation (OAuGF)

SUPPORTING THE AUDIT PROCESS

With support from the PDF Bridge Programme, the Office of the Auditor-General for the Federation (OAuGF) developed training manuals on Financial Audit Methodology (FAM) and Compliance Audit Methodology (CAM). A total of 606 staff of OAuGF have recently been trained in the application of these methodologies to their audit assignments. The training which ran for three weeks from June 1st, 2020 – June 18th, 2020 was conducted virtually via the zoom platform and had participants drawn from both the Federal and state levels, with the aim to bring staff up to speed with current professional standards in performing financial statement audits of federal entities.

UPCOMING EVENTS

PDF-Bridge is inviting you to participate in its first Non-Oil Exporters Dialogue Webinar with the theme 'Addressing Barriers to Access to Foreign Markets – An analysis of Spices & Herbs, Textiles & Garments, and Leather Products'

The objectives of the dialogue are to:

1. Facilitate policy discourse on market access challenges and recommendations for improvement using evidence from the Market Access study which was commissioned by the PDF program.
2. Create a platform for non-oil exporters, MDAs of government with regulatory functions for non-oil exports, international certifications bodies to have conversations on how to improve access to markets
3. Equip MSMEs with the necessary knowledge to enhance their ability to gain initial access or increase their access to some selected international markets using Spices & Herbs, Textiles & Garments, and Leather Products as case studies.

The event is scheduled as follows:

Date: Thursday 9th July 2020

Time: 11:00am – 1:00pm
